We offer a competitive and comprehensive salary and benefits package, including an RSP matching program and Employee Ownership Program.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Underwrite and maintain medium to large commercial new business and renewals under our In house authority contracts, adhering to all contract guidelines to ensure underwriting integrity is maintained
- Market and maintain medium to large commercial new business and renewals to Insurers
- Maintain strong professional relationships with external insurance partners as well as broker partner offices
- Provide detailed instructions to Underwriting Assistants on how to issue new, renewal, endorsements or cancellations
- Act as a resource, coach and mentor for more junior co-workers
- Broker and Insurer visits as required
- Participate in team meetings, management meetings, and company-wide initiatives as required
- Assist in the development of products and programs
- Participate in ongoing training and education

Qualifications:

- Minimum High School Graduate
- An insurance designation preferred (or working towards one)
- 5 to 10 years of commercial insurance experience, with commercial underwriting experience
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Proficiency in Word, Excel, Outlook & PowerPoint
- Prior experience working in TUW is preferred
- Confident self-starter willing to learn new tasks and is able to demonstrate ability to communicate effectively both verbally and in writing
